

OUR WORLD 2050

What does your world of 2050 look like? Here's a list of questions you can answer together. Everyone must answer a question and by writing your answers on this sheet, you'll draw together a picture of the world in 2050.

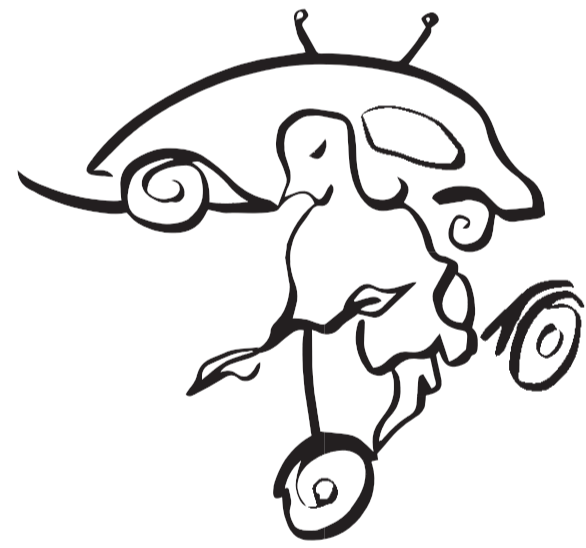

Take a breath: what smells do you perceive in this world of 2050, and what do they inspire in you?

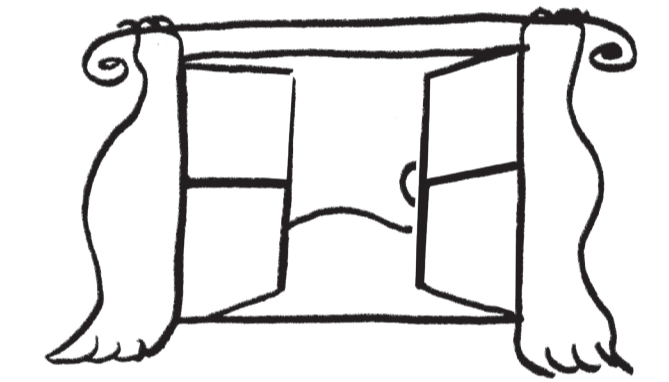

Listen carefully: what sounds do you hear in this world of 2050 and where do they come from?

What's your home like?

If you have to go somewhere, how do you get around?

What do you see through your window that tells you about the time?

*Who, or what, do you live with?
How do people live in general?*

What does the newspaper say today?

Tell us about one of your typical meals in 2050?
